CHIESA DI S. SIGISMONDO MONASTERO DOMENICANO

A closed-order church and a convent in Cremona

The St. Sigismund church (XV century) has become a convent church once again as it was up till the end of the XVIII century.

Happy are they whose resting-place is in your house, Lord: they will still be praising you. (Ps 84)

Dominican Nuns

Dominic († 1221), founder of the Order of the Preachers, «united the nuns to evangelization through prayer and testimony of a life of mutual charity. As voice of the church, they praise the Lord daily through liturgical prayer, so that the Word by which the Lord reveals his love for us isn't returned to Him without results but may bring goodness to those whom the Word has been given».

The church is open

Every day from 06.45 to 12.00
and from 15.00 to 18.30

The Cloister

The cloister and the choir can be visited on May 1st (St. Sigismund) and the third Sunday of September (anniversary of the church's dedication).
